

Sentences, Run-on's, Fragments

Determine whether each is a sentence, run-on, or fragment. If it is a run-on or fragment, rewrite it correctly!

1. People have long wondered at the noises of animals, can animals communicate with each other?

2. After several years of research.

3. Scientists are convinced that some animals have more effective communication systems than people have.

4. The porpoise can mimic a person's voice, but it speaks eight times faster than the average human.

5. Making a tape recorder essential.

6. In order to slow the porpoise's voice down enough for scientists to study it.

7. Purposes can imitate human laughter, they can also imitate a "Bronx Cheer."

8. There is some evidence that porpoises can manage to learn words and phrases.

9. Which they repeat with humanlike rhythm.

10. After the porpoise has listened to a person with a southern accent.